Membership of BPW Galway brings many worthwhile benefits:

- Local Friendships:
BPW is firstly a welcoming and sociable place where women of all ages can meet to discuss issues of importance to them, share ideas, support each other and learn from each other.
- Worldwide Friendships:
Members from five continents may connect with other BPW members globally through the BPW Online digital network, and International Conferences. In 2019, BPW Ireland will welcome more than 500 BPW delegates from all over Europe to Galway and you can be a part of this exciting chapter in BPW Galway's history.
- Leadership Development:
BPW offers mentoring and leadership training for personal development. Members are encouraged to take on leadership roles within their own Club and at National Level as well as attending and challenging for positions at International Level.
- A Strong Voice:
Founded in the 1920s, BPW has grown to become a highly influential organisation internationally with Clubs in over 100 Countries and more than 50,000 members worldwide. BPW enjoys Consultative Status at the United Nations and the Council of Europe as well as working closely with the European Women's Lobby and UNIFEM, among others. In Ireland, BPW is a founder member of the National Women's Council of Ireland.
- Business & Member Pages:
Individual members can publicise their business and professions on www.bpw-business.org to reach a world-wide audience.
